ABOUT THE PROJECT MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE

The Project Management Institute (PMI) was established in 1969 and is headquartered outside Philadelphia.

PMI is the world's leading not-for-profit project management professional association. Currently, PMI supports over 200,000 members representing 125 countries worldwide. PMI has over 200 chapters worldwide.

PMI members are individuals practicing and studying project management in many different industry areas, including aerospace, automotive, business management, construction, engineering, financial services, information technology, pharmaceutical and telecommunications.

Over time, PMI has become, and continues to be, the leading professional association in project management.

More information is available at the organisation's website, <http://www.pmi.org>.

ABOUT THE BANGALORE CHAPTER

The Bangalore Chapter of PMI was founded in 1998 and has grown to over 2000 members in past 9 years.

Regular meetings, programs, and workshops of the chapter are generally published on our web site.
