6TH
SUCCESSIVE
YEAR

One-Day Seminar on
PROJECT MANAGEMENT

Saturday, 9th July 2005
Venue : Hotel Grand Ashok

For the sixth successive year, ROTARY BANGALORE WEST is conducting a one-day seminar on Project Management along with IBM, and PMI, Bangalore. The seminar adds great value in this key area, and has a good cause too, which is why so many companies, especially in the IT sector, have supported the event over the years.

Why Project Management?

A Standish Group survey shows a staggering 33% of Software projects get cancelled before completion, and close to 53% incur substantial cost and time overruns. Most often, these failures and overruns are due to inadequate project management skills in the team, and not due to technical challenges. Carefully followed methods and good project management processes can significantly help the success of projects, especially in IT.

Objectives of Seminar

This intense one-day seminar addresses all the key project management areas and will give the participants a high level of understanding of modern practices. The seminar will also provide an ideal platform for interaction with like-minded professionals.

Who should attend?
